

Awards Made of Contracts for New Work

Contract has been awarded to Robert Millsap at $37,500 by the Beverly Hills Board of Education for construction of a kindergarten building at the Horace Mann School site in Beverly Hills. The structure will be of reinforced concrete construction, L-shaped, with dimensions 88x109 feet, and it to contain three classrooms, work shop, teachers' room, kitchen, etc.

OTHER CONTRACTS

The following contract awards also have been made:

To Stark & Schmid by the Board of Public Building Reconstruction, for the reconstruction of the Francis Willard school in Compton for the Compton Grammar School District, $15,900.

To Johnson and Houser, for construction of the South school in Hermosa Beach, $8089. Also to Johnson & Hansen, contract for reconstruction of the North school in Hermosa Beach, $9066.

To William C. Crowell, by the Pasadena Board of Education, for construction of a new school building at the Cleveland elementary school site in Pasadena, $86,364.

STRUCTURE COMPLETED

A new office building costing $15,000, just has been completed at the intersection of Mirage avenue and Hermosa street, Lindsay, to house the executive quarters of the Central California Citrus Exchange.