

Figure 14: Rear (north) façade of the main North School building. Its gable roof is easily viewed from this direction. View looking southwest.

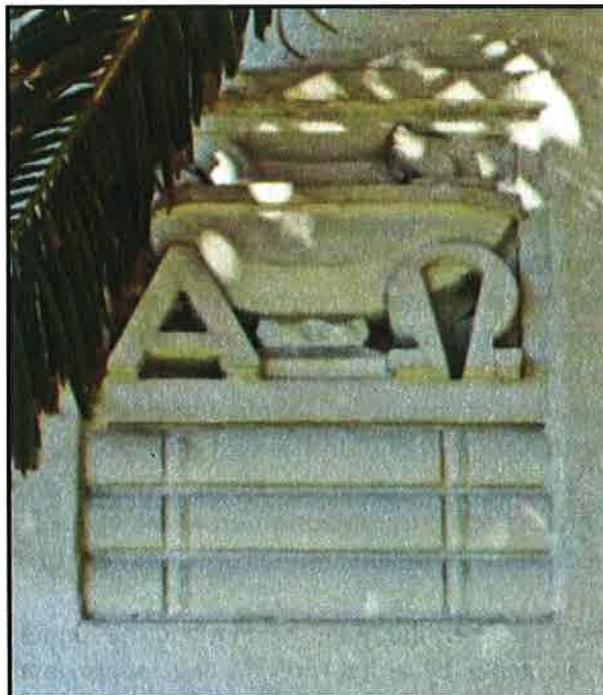

Figure 15: The decorative inset panel in the gable end of the front façade of the main North School building. The panel signifies the lamp of knowledge sitting on a stack of books between the Greek alphabet letters alpha and omega representing learning subjects "from A to Z." View looking north.